Investment Strategy

from investment's prospectus

This fund is intended for long-term investors seeking high returns by investing in a broad range of U.S. companies.

This fund seeks to match the performance of the Russell 3000® Index by investing in a diversified sample of the stocks that make up the index. The Russell 3000® Index is a market weighted index of the common stocks of the 3,000 largest companies in the U.S. as defined by their market capitalization. Larger companies will have more impact on this option's performance than smaller companies.

Category Description: Large Blend

Large-blend portfolios are fairly representative of the overall US stock market in size, growth rates and price. Stocks in the top 70% of the capitalization of the US equity market are defined as large cap. The blend style is assigned to portfolios where neither growth nor value characteristics predominate. These portfolios tend to invest across the spectrum of US industries, and owing to their broad exposure, the portfolios' returns are often similar to those of the S&P 500 Index.

Volatility Analysis

In the past, this investment has shown a relatively moderate range of price fluctuations relative to other investments. This investment may experience larger or smaller price declines or price increases depending on market conditions. Some of this risk may be offset by owning other investments with different portfolio makeups or investment strategies.

Notes

You should review the Investment Options Disclosures document before making any investment decisions. The Morningstar Rating that is reflected on this page is hypothetical. The Rating is considered hypothetical because Morningstar does not independently analyze the custom fund universe. Rather the Rating is assigned to the custom fund universe as a means to compare the institutional funds with the universe of mutual funds that Morningstar rates.
