The Stable Value Fund seeks to preserve principal value and provide a relatively stable rate of return comparable to investment grade intermediate fixed income yields over two to four years.

The Fund invests in a diversified portfolio of stable value contracts issued by banks, insurance companies and other financial institutions and a variety of fixed income instruments included U.S. Government and agency securities, mortgage-backed securities, asset-backed securities and corporate bonds. The return is affected by the general level of interest rates as well as cash flows, including those from participant contributions, withdrawals and transfers into and out of the Fund.

Category Description: Stable Value

Stable value funds seek to provide income while preventing price fluctuations. The most common stable value funds invest in a diversified portfolio of bonds and enter into wrapper agreements with financial companies to guarantee against fluctuations in their share prices. The safety of these funds therefore depends on both the fund's investments as well as the financial strength of the insurance companies and banks that back the wrapper agreements.
