

EMPLOYER NOTICE

Special OPERS Event for Employers – Lifecycle Education Initiative

WHO SHOULD READ THIS NOTICE

Human Resource professionals and any employer contact assisting employees with benefits

SITUATION OVERVIEW

OPERS is committed to partnering with public employees to learn how to better serve them throughout their careers and help them become better prepared for retirement.

As an OPERS public employer, you are an important resource and partner in the development of lifecycle retirement education for your employees. The OPERS Education Team has already conducted in-person educational sessions for employers as well as sent a survey to members to target their individual needs and preferences for retirement and financial education. We would like to partner with as many employers as possible with the end result of reaching as many of your employees as we can.

WHAT EMPLOYERS NEED TO DO

Register for an upcoming interactive webinar to learn how we can partner with you to provide financial and retirement education to your employees. Registration is available via the website www.opers.org/employers/seminars.

Each interactive session will last approximately one hour.

OPERS will:

- Review the types of education OPERS offers to members
- Provide member demographics and statistics
- Explain how to partner with OPERS to deliver education to your employees
- Update you on future education initiatives for your employees

WHY THIS IS IMPORTANT

Our data shows that most of our members do not reach out for retirement education until the end of their public service career. By creating lifecycle education that includes financial and retirement components based upon targeted feedback from our members, we can provide opportunity and awareness at a much earlier stage.

WHAT YOU NEED TO DO
