EMPLOYER NOTICE

Changes to ECS Form A submission process

WHO SHOULD READ THIS NOTICE
Fiscal Officers, HR contacts and any OPERS employer contact working with elected officials or those appointed to an elective office

SITUATION OVERVIEW
The Personal History Record/Elected Official Membership Form (Form A) is required for individuals who wish to elect OPERS membership for their elective service.

As stated in the April 2017 Employer Notice, personal history records for elected officials should be submitted on paper Form A for any elected official opting for OPERS membership. ECS has been updated to support this change. Effective immediately, ECS no longer accepts Form A if the elected official has not previously elected OPERS membership as an elected official.

Additionally, the OPERS website was recently redesigned. To locate the ECS log in screen, select ECS Login from the Employers drop down menu on the opers.org homepage.

WHAT EMPLOYERS NEED TO DO
If the Personal History Record/Elected Official Membership Form A is not accepted on ECS, a paper Form A must be submitted within the appropriate time frame. Please use the attached Form A as previous versions will not be accepted.

Form A should be submitted within 30 days of the member’s start date.

- The following dates should match on Form A for an elected official: salary begin date, member’s signature date, and pay period begin date of the first report.
- Contributions for periods prior to the member’s signature date will be refunded back to the employer.

WHY THIS IS IMPORTANT
OPERS is committed to working toward improvements that streamline business practices and improve administrative efficiency, while providing common-sense improvements for its members.
